INDIANA LAW ANNOTATED

Vol.2, No. 8

March 2, 1992

INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE AND GLOBAL CHANGE

Henry Shue, the Wyn and William Y. Hutchinson Professor of Ethics and Public Life at Cornell University, will present a workshop on "International Justice and Global Change," Thursday, March 5, at 3:00 p.m., in the faculty lounge.

PHILOSOPHY PROFESSOR TO SPEAK OF JURY EXPERIENCE

Paul Eisenberg, chair of the Philosophy Department here at I.U., recently found himself serving as a member of a jury in a local murder case. This experience will serve as the foundation for discussion as he presents "A Philosopher Among Lawyers" on Wednesday, March 4, at noon in the faculty lounge. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Law and Society and the Poynter Center.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY

Mary Ellen O'Connell has just published an entry in the Encyclopedia of Sociology on "International Law." Doug Boshkoff's literary efforts, reported in this space last week, have inspired the following poetic rejoinder from a colleague known only as "Anon.":

There once was a law prof named Doug

Who swept, with an innocent shrug,

The idea that he wrote

Any poem with footnote

On hirsute hands, under the rug.

Lynne Henderson will speak on "Getting to No: Honoring Women in Law and in Fact" at a conference on Perspectives on Women and Violence at the University of Texas Law School Mar. 6.

NEWS FROM LAW STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS:

SLA "Body Heat"

In anticipation of Spring Break, the SLA will be showing the steamy legal classic, "Body Heat" Thursday, March 5, at 8:00 p.m. here in the law school (room TBA). As always, admission is free.

Law Students For Choice

Law Students for Choice will meet Thursday, March 5, at noon (room number will be posted). Anyone interested in reproductive freedom please attend. We will discuss transportation and financial support for students who wish to attend the "We Won't Go Back! March for Women's Lives" in Washington D.C. April 5.

Law Caucus Auction Totals

The Annual Law Caucus for Women's Concerns Auction was a great success. Besides having 100% faculty participation, the auction raised over $4000 (a new record). We hope all of you had fun and we hope to see you next year. A special thanks to the auction coordinators Jennifer Jordan and Jennifer Newton. Great job!

BLSA Plans Meetings, "Confronting Racism"

Underrepresented students who feel they may have been a victim of racism at our school are welcome to attend a series of meetings at 12:15 on March 2,3, and 5 in Rm. 214 and March 6 in Rm. 216. The purpose of these meetings is to define racism, identify discrimination based on "race" and develop strategies for confronting discrimination.

Law Journal Banquet Features Communications Law Expert

Daniel Brenner, Director of Communications Law at U.C.L.A. School of Law, will speak on the topic, "Guttenberg to Guttenberg: Two Schools of Journalism and the Law" at the Indiana University School of Law's Law Journal banquet, Tudor Room, March 6, evening.

PILF Fellowships

Every summer, the Public Interest Law Foundation sponsors fellowships for students to work for public interest law organizations that cannot otherwise afford to pay for law students. If you are a first or second year students and have found a non-paying or low-paying job for the summer in a public interest field (broadly defined) and feel you cannot take it for financial reasons, apply for a PILF fellowship. We try to provide students with enough money to take jobs they ordinarily could not afford.

Last summer, we sponsored students to work in areas such as homelessness, AIDS, and poverty law in cities such as Los Angeles, Chicago, and Portland, Oregon, with total fellowship grants of $8,500. This money is raised during our spring fund drive which begins immediately after spring break.

Fellowship applications are due on Thursday, March 5, at 5:00 p.m. to the Career Services Office. Final selections will be made and decisions announced before spring break. Applications are available in the Career Services Office. Questions??? See Amy Huffman or Thomas Applegate, 3Ls.

Meetings

...Environmental Law Society: Lecture committee, 12:15 p.m., Rm. 120, Tuesday

...Environmental Law Society: General meeting: 12:15 Wednesday, Rm. 120.
